THE GOOD SAM RALLY 2012 –
VOLUNTEER AGREEMENT

Each volunteer worker for The Good Sam Rally 2012 must meet the following requirements:

1. Volunteer for a five-hour shift for a total of four days or a total of twenty (20) hours during The Good Sam Rally (meals are not included.)
2. Be physically capable of the following during a five-hour shift: sitting, standing, stooping, bending, squatting, and light lifting.
3. Able to get to and from assigned workstation.
4. Must register for The Good Sam Rally.
5. Able to withstand exposure to sun, heat, and rain during assigned volunteer shift.
6. Follow instructions from The Good Sam Rally coordinators.
7. Able to arrive at The Good Sam Rally grounds on Sunday, March 18, Sunday, June 17 or Monday, October 29, 2012 between Noon and 4:00 p.m.
8. Must be available to volunteer on each of the three parking days. (Please do not schedule any optional tours or seminars on these days.)

I/We have read, fully understand, and agree to comply with the volunteer requirements as set forth above. I understand that The Good Sam Rally volunteer coordinator will make my schedule based on the preferences noted below and that I will be notified at check-in of the times, hours and duties of my volunteer assignment. I understand that there will be a mandatory volunteer orientation, grounds viewing, and training.

I/We understand that the dry camping Rally fee will be reimbursed (if only one person in the registered rig volunteers, one-half will be reimbursed.) For those who wish to purchase electricity at The Good Sam Rally, the electric charge must be paid for in advance for the four days of the Rally and the two Early Bird days. If the mandatory 20 hours are not worked, the entire dry camping fee will be charged to me. Electricity will be turned on at 2:00 p.m. on scheduled volunteer arrival day.

Please identify the volunteer preferences below. We cannot guarantee you will get what you have requested but we will do our best to accommodate you. Please note which volunteer assignment you will not or do not feel comfortable serving. Also, if you prefer a morning or afternoon schedule, please let us know:
